Day 2	This tour will take you through the holy city of Mecca, one of the most significant spiritual destinations for Muslims. The visit includes several religious landmarks that hold deep historical and religious importance. The Kaaba, located in the Masjid al-Haram, is the most sacred site in Islam. It is the direction (Qibla) towards which Muslims face during their daily prayers. Pilgrims come from all over the world to perform Tawaf, walking around the Kaaba seven times in a counterclockwise direction. It is the focal point of the Hajj pilgrimage and a symbol of unity among Muslims. Masjid al-Haram is the largest mosque in the world and surrounds the Kaaba. It is the center of Islamic worship, where millions of Muslims gather for prayer, especially during the Hajj season. Visitors can perform prayers here, and it is a place for reflection and seeking spiritual closeness to God. Mount Arafat, also known as the "Mountain of Mercy," is where Prophet Muhammad delivered his final sermon during the Hajj pilgrimage. It is a key part of Hajj rituals, where pilgrims stand in prayer and supplication, seeking forgiveness and reflecting on their lives. It is also a site of great historical significance. Mina is a valley located near Mecca, where pilgrims stay during the Hajj pilgrimage. It is known for the symbolic ritual of the Stoning of the Devil (Ramy al-Jamarat), where pilgrims throw stones at three pillars representing Satan. This is a reenactment of Prophet Ibrahim's (Abraham) rejection of temptation. Located on the Mountain of Light (Jabal al-Noor), the Cave of Hira is where Prophet Muhammad received his first revelation from the Angel Jibreel (Gabriel). The cave offers a quiet and serene atmosphere, allowing visitors to reflect on the profound spiritual significance of the event. The Well of Zamzam, located in the Masjid al-Haram, has been providing water for over 4,000 years. According to Islamic tradition, it sprang up when Hagar, the wife of Prophet Ibrahim, was searching for water for her son, Isma'il. Pilgrims often drink from the well and take some water home as a blessed gift.
